

COVELLI CENTRE ANNOUNCES MICHAEL STANLEY AND THE RESONATORS AS ENTERTAINMENT FOR FIRST ANNUAL 'WINGFEST'

The Covelli Centre will debut its latest summer tradition July 21-23

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 13, 2011 Youngstown, OH—The Covelli Centre will host the First Place Bank Greater Youngstown Wingfest a new annual 3-day event beginning July 21-23. On Saturday, July 23rd Michael Stanley and the Resonators will entertain wing and music enthusiasts. Prior to the Cleveland native and national recording artist taking the stage, Wingfest will open its gates at noon for a classic car show until 5pm.

Thursday, July 21st will showcase local artists presented by Third Arm Promotions. Friday night's entertainment will feature a national recording artist that will be announced on June 27th.

The event will feature wing vendors from the tri-county area, live entertainment nightly, local businesses, and activities such as wing eating contests featuring local celebrities.

"We anticipate a large attendance for our first Wingfest," Assistant Director, Ken Bigley says. "The idea is to have all of the best wings, local vendors, and live entertainment in an outdoor setting for the community. The event will kick off on Thursday at 5pm and feature local entertainment and end on Saturday night with a national recording artist."

Schedule of Events:

Thursday, July 21: Doors open at 5pm with local artist showcase presented by Third Arm Promotions. Tickets available at the gate for $5.00

Friday, July 22: Doors open at noon with evening entertainment provided by national recording artist (to be announced June 27th!) Tickets available at the gate for $10.00

Saturday, July 23: Doors open at noon with a classic car show and evening entertainment provided by Michael Stanley and the Resonators. Tickets available at the gate for $10.00
